We're going to be deactivating two of the three Facebook pages we've managed to start over the years. To make sure we don't get disconnected from you, please visit the Collar City Clay Guild page we're keeping here:

Rose Neander, CCCG Secretary, will be breathing new life into our Facebook presence and we invite you all to share and comment on the page about all things clay. Let us know what you're working on, what you need help with, and anything else you care to share.

We hope to connect with you on Facebook soon!

Empty Bowls 2020?

The future is uncertain for all of us in so many different ways. We remain hopeful that there will be a safe way for us to hold our annual Empty Bowls fundraiser in the fall of 2020. Even if we're unable to hold Empty Bowls 2020 in the same way we've organized past events, we are committed to raising funds to support our local food pantries in 2020. Food insecurity is even more important in the midst of the financial hardships caused by COVID-19. So, please keep making those beautiful bowls!

Looking for something to do?

Send us your bio or artist statement for the Members page on the CCCG website! Attach a photo of you and/or your work and a link to your shop or website if you have one.

Stay home if you can and stay safe.

No March/April meetings. . .but let's stay connected!

CCCG Virtual Meeting: Saturday, May 30, 11:00am

Greetings from quarantine.

We hope this newsletter finds you all safe and healthy. As we all struggle to deal with the biggest public health crisis of our lifetimes, it is perhaps more important now than ever for us to stay connected and supportive of one another. The March and April meetings have been cancelled in keeping with the New York COVID-19 guidelines and it's unlikely that we'll be able to reconvene safely in May. But instead of cancelling the May meeting, we're looking into hosting a virtual meeting. Same date: May 30. Same time: 11am. Different place: from your own home. Different dress code: pants optional! Details will follow but mark your calendar now!
